

SUSAN HODDY

AWARD WINNING YOUNG ADULT AUTHOR

Hello and Welcome to my August 2021 Newsletter

Even though some of Australia is in lockdown from Covid-19 at the moment, and the world seems to have gone mad with one thing or another, I am wondering where the month of August has gone. Could this year go any faster...

What I am currently working on

In August, I have finally returned to writing. My new writing adventure is going to be children's first reader books, which is something I have been wanting to do for a while. It's still in a 'work in progress' stage at the moment, so hopefully by the end of September I will be able to share with you what they are about and show you some of the illustrations. Keep an eye out for my exciting news...

Looking for an Illustrator

Wow, who knew how hard it would be to select a good illustrator that knows exactly what you are looking for. Over the past few months, I have been trying to find an experienced illustrator for not only a book cover, but also the internal pages of a new project I will be writing. I wish I could say that this has been an easy task, trying to find an illustrator for seven (7) new books... but it hasn't. The amount of research and narrowing down just the right person has been exhausting. But in saying this, I am currently trialling a new illustrator/designer. I am loving her work so far and can't wait to see her next lot of pages when they come through in the next couple of days.

A big thank you to Dymocks Ellenbrook for having me in-store to do a book signing and author chat about my series called The Lepidoptera Vampires. I thoroughly enjoyed the day and meeting the readers.
